December 23, 2019 Freedom of Information Act Request (FOIA)

Dear Mr. Foster,

I am writing in response to your signed letter dated 12-17-19 (Copy attached) in which you noticed me of your plans to make contact with various people or entities having some alleged contact with me regarding my personal IRS matters. This is a FOIA request for the following information to support your letter's allegations.

1. Please provide me with documentation on the amount of alleged taxes owed by me for each of the years 2003-2006, according to your records as of the date of this request which you are attempting to collect.

2. Please provide documentation which supports the taxes allegedly owed, to include, specifically, the pre-assessment documents you/IRS used to create the alleged tax debt owed. This does NOT include IRS "in house" documents, but the actual proof of debt documents used by you to create this alleged tax debt for said years above.

3. Please provide documentation on the IRS's lawful and constitutional definition of "income," from the Internal Revenue Code, and/or other lawful sources, and how that "income" specifically relates to me, my alleged assets, or the assessed alleged tax debt you refer to against me... i.e. what is the nature of the alleged "income" received by me being assessed by you... business profit, personal wages, and/or other alleged income? Please be specific as to the nature of the assessed assets.

4. Please provide the actual statutes and laws authorizing you to collect private third party information against me without a lawful summons, court subpoena or search warrant to those third parties.

5. Per your letter, please provide a complete list of parties you have contacted, or intend to contact, regarding the alleged tax debt and how these contacts are relevant to your attempt to collect the alleged taxes you claim I owe.

6. Please provide me with the statute or code which created the "subject to and liable for" the tax this assessment is based on... i.e. where am I personally made "subject to" the tax you claim I owe, and how I am "liable for" this alleged tax debt per the I.R. Code, or other law.

7. Please provide your supervisor's name and ID number.

Thank you for your prompt response to this FOIA request.

Dear Jeffrey,

We're attempting to collect taxes you owe. You should know about this from our previous contacts with you.

Generally, the IRS will deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons if we need information that you've been unable to provide, or to verify information we've received.

We're writing to tell you we intend to contact other persons such as a neighbor, a bank, an employer, or employees. When we contact other persons, we generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name.

The law prohibits us from disclosing more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. We will make contact beginning 45 days from the date of this letter, on January, 31 2020, and ending one year later, on December,17 2020. You have a right to request a list of those contacted. You can make your request by telephone, in writing, or during a personal interview.

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights describes ten basic rights that all taxpayers have when dealing with the IRS. To help you understand what these rights mean to you and how they apply, visit our website at www.irs.gov/tbor.

If you have questions about this letter or want to request a list of the other people we've contacted, you can contact the person at the top of this letter. If you write, include the person to contact name and the employee ID number shown above.

Sincerely,

Ryan Foster
Revenue Officer
